

K-Love radio provides an important source of inspiration and information to our community. I am very concerned that LPFM (low power FM) stations would replace the local K-Love radio stations. This station provides help and inspiration for people facing everyday struggles and difficulties in our lives.